TRIS SPEAKER AND COBB IN BASEBALL SCANDAL

Famous Major League Diamond Heroes Implicated by 'Dutch' Leonard in Confession

CHICAGO, Dec. 21. (AP)—Two of the greatest baseball players in the history of the game, Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker, today were announced by Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis in an expose of a scandal that went back to 1919, the year climaxed by the famous crooked world's series between the White Sox and Cincinnati Reds.

Cobb, famed as the "Georgia Peach," and Speaker, the famous "Speck," of the Indians, had their names linked with "Dutch" Leonard and "Smoky Joe" Wood, both former American League pitching stars, in a confession made public by Commissioner Landis in an expose of a scandal that went back to 1919, the year climaxed by the famous crooked world's series between the White Sox and Cincinnati Reds.

Cobb, until after the close of the 1926 season, was manager of the Detroit club, and a star player on it for twenty years, while Speaker held the same managerial position with Cleveland. Both resigned suddenly after the finish of the 1926 pennant race.

The scandal, breaking today, was the third that has rocked the major leagues since the barring forever of the eight White Sox players for conspiracy to throw the 1919 world's series.

The sum of money involved in the latest scandal was $600, bet by Leonard, a one-time Tiger pitcher, and Speaker, a one-time Indians pitcher, on the Detroit team, and a star player on it for twenty years, while Speaker held the same managerial position with Cleveland. Both resigned suddenly after the finish of the 1926 pennant race.

DRY AGENTS CALLED OFF IN BAY CITY

Enforcement Squad Will Be Inactive New Year's Eve Except When Sent For

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—No Federal prohibition agents will go prying around hotels and cafes to make sure the Bay District observes a dry New Year's Eve. Acting Prohibition Administrator W. W. Anderson so ruled today.

"I intend to have a squad of agents on hand in my office," he declared, "ready to go immediately to any place where the vulgar and illegal use of illicit spirits is reported. I have admonished the proprietors of hotels and cafes not to countenance liquor drinking in their establishments and I feel sure they will co-operate to the extent of reporting violations of the law."

"But I don't believe it will be necessary to have agents go spying around on respectable citizens as has been done in the past, merely because the natural exuberance of the season results in a bit more noise than usual."

"Besides, the enforcement of prohibition has reached a point of efficiency in seven years where I do not really believe there will be much liquor to drink."

The percentage increases by sections were as follows:

New England, 42; Middle Atlantic, 48; East North Central, 55; West North Central, 54; South Atlantic, 58; East South Central, 78; West South Central, 79; Mountain, 31; Pacific, 58.

MILLINER ASKS BALM OF NEW YORK BROKER

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (AP)—Suit for $100,000 damages for alleged attack was filed in Supreme Court today against Joseph Edward Walsh, member of the Curb Exchange and of the Broadway brokerage firm of Frost & Co., by Miss Katherine Tormay, 23-year-old milliner of Jersey City, N. J.

Three bodies were found floating in the ice where the launch overturned and the rest were taken from the cabin after the boat had been carried upstream several miles by the ice.

Capt. John Rohwerder of Jersey City was under police guard today in Knickerbocker Hospital, suffering from shock and submersion, and charged with homicide and negligence. He was picked out of the river as he was swimming through the floating ice for the Jersey shore.

Will Rogers Remarks:

[To the Los Angeles Times:] As Mayor of Beverly Hills I arrived here today an dhad big reception. They mistook me for Ormiston.

If not success as Mayor, they offered to change City Hall to a tabernacle, me to preach and Doug and Tom Mix and Bill Hart to take up collection. Ben Turpin is to run radio so there will be no chance of scandal.

Seriously speaking, however, they gave me great reception and I want to thank everybody from the bottom of my heart and President Coolidge for sending me nice message. Also Gov. Al Smith and Mayor Jimmie Walker of New York, my only opposition. Also Hiram Johnson and Shortridge.

His Honor of Beverly Hills.

The best town west of Nantucket Lightship. The only Mayor who hasn't made a mistake—yet.

Governor Frees "Innocent Man" and Says Prosecutor Has Proved His Negligence Again

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—Dist. Atty. Keyes of Los Angeles county came in for another scoring at the hands of Gov. Richardson today when the Governor granted a pardon to Clifford A. McCormick, who was convicted of robbery in Los Angeles county in 1924.

Gov. Richardson declared McCormick is innocent and that his conviction was due to a miscarriage of justice and to carelessness on the part of Dist. Atty. Keyes in administering his office. McCormick is the fourth innocent man, says the Governor, to be pardoned by him because of being "wrongfully convicted in Los Angeles county."

"There are not only these cases of innocent men convicted," declared Gov. Richardson, "but I have received complaints of failure to prosecute criminals."

The same sources responsible for the information that a deal is under negotiation are authority for the prediction that no change will be made in the French American Bank, but that it will be maintained as a separate institution. SACRAMENTO, Dec. 21. (AP)—The California Commission for the Revision of Criminal Procedure will meet here today in San Francisco next Thursday to decide definitely what recommendations it shall make to the Legislature. Thomas Gannon, member of the commission, so announced today.

About a month ago Gannon and his colleagues of the crime commission, Walter K. Tuller of Los Angeles and John V. Collins of Oakland, made public a tentative list of recommendations and asked for comment from citizens. Among these tentative recommendations were a proposal to speed up justice by permitting waiver of trial by jury when a coroner's jury at the inquest here years to twenty-five years and a tightening of the rules governing continuances.

There are not only these cases of innocent men convicted, but I have read numerous complaints of failure to prosecute criminals. As I have no authority over the District Attorney, my only course is to report the matter to the people through the newspapers. I fully realize the great population of Los Angeles county and the large number of criminals."

COL. GREEN FREED BY JURY OF LIQUOR ACCUSATIONS

Deposed Dry Chief Exonerated of All Charges and May Get His Job Back If He Wants It

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21. (AP)—Col. Ned M. Green, former Federal Prohibition administrator here, was acquitted by a jury in the United States District Court today on a charge of embezzling confiscated government liquor stores. The jury went out at 4:17 p.m. and reported at 4:33 p.m. that it had reached a verdict. Judge St. Sure was sent for and the clerk of the court read the verdict of acquittal.

The jury not only exonerated Col. Green on the eight counts remaining in the indictment, but on the three additional counts that were dismissed during the trial, giving the colonel a "clean slate."

When the verdict was returned there was a demonstration in the courtroom that had to be suppressed by the bailiffs.

The jurors crowded around the defense counsel table and congratulated Col. Green and the defense attorneys. They were in the midst of this when Judge St. Sure remarked: "We must stop this now. Let us not have any reception committee here."

Col. Green said later that he might accept reappointment at the hands of Gen. Andrews if conditions demanded it, "but the whole thing is poison to me now."

The courtroom was cleared a few minutes after the verdict was returned.

MANHATTAN LOCKED UP

Liquor Raids on Best-Known Resorts Result of Months of Quiet Inquiry

Seven Parties Busy All Night Serving Injunctions on Fifty-eight Cafes

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (AP)—Padlock proceedings against fifty-eight of Manhattan's best-known night clubs, cabarets and restaurants were begun tonight in raids by seven parties sent out from the office of Federal Attorney Buckner.

Mr. Buckner's men started serving temporary personal injunctions and bills of complaint at 10 o'clock tonight on various establishments in the Broadway district between Forty-sixth street and Fifty-sixth street and in Greenwich Village. The serving processes were expected to keep them busy until dawn.

Mal. Charles P. Mills, prohibition administrator, it was said, has been collecting evidence for the last three months and submitting it to the padlock division of the Federal Attorney's office.

The service of a personal injunction with the padlock proceedings is a new procedure by which Mr. Buckner and his assistants believe the sale of liquor in night clubs, speakeasies and restaurants will be checked.

Among the well-known places on the midway were the 300 Club, Club Anatole, Tommy Guinan's Playground, Del Rey Club, Cafe de Paris (formerly the Theatre), Embassy Club and Club Biarritz.

Texas Guinan's 300 Club is one of the most widely known clubs in the country, Mr. Buckner said. He added that Texas Guinan was "so sequestered by revenue men" when they were leaving the club in the morning that he was unable to check the bill carrying eleven counts charging the "felicitous embezzlement of liquor."

The indictment sets forth that approximately forty-six bottles of liquor were taken by Col. Green from the government stores, but three of the counts in the bill were dismissed during the trial. In the hearing itself, Col. Green and others testified that they had seen Col. Green remove liquor from the prohibition office safe on McAllister street and from the vaults of the former United States Bank.

SHIES AT CINDERELLA ROLE

Denver Miss Tells Judge She Prefers Life of Servant to That of Arizona Man's Ward

DENVER, Dec. 21. (AP)—Judge Ben Lindsey of the Denver Juvenile Court informed authorities of the Phoenix (Ariz.) Probation Court today that Jackie Henley, 10-year-old Denver girl, does not want to become the adopted daughter of J. M. Freeman, wealthy Phoenix man.

"A life as a domestic in Denver rather than the pampered adopted daughter of an aged wealthy man may be a greater appeal to the girl, and I feel that to advise her otherwise was not the wise course," the judge said.

The girl, one of six children, came here last summer as she said "to make the burden lighter for mother and father." She met Freeman through an advertisement. The parents of the girl reside at Springfield, Neb., according to her story.

"Judge, I wouldn't mind being adopted by a retired millionaire, but not to be a second 'Peasie' Browning," Miss Henley told Judge Lindsey.

"I met Mr. Freeman last August when he answered my advertisement for work and we became very good friends," the girl said. "He told me he was living with an aunt at the time and wanted a companion for her. Afterward I found out that his aunt was building a $45,000 home near Long Beach, Cal., but that Mr. Freeman's home was in Phoenix. Mr. Freeman stayed in Denver for about a month and then went to Phoenix on business. He said he had several large apartment-houses there. He also told me he owned several large warehouses at Riverside, Cal., and had other interests. I like him very much and think he is a swell nice man, but I hate to go against my mother's wishes. She has written me several times telling me not to go."

CONGRESS TO RECESS WITH VEXING ISSUES WAITING

Smith's Acceptance of Senate Seat Forebodes Bitter Battle After Holiday Rest Starting Today

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—With much of its routine work disposed of but with virtually all of its more vexing and controversial issues awaiting attention, Congress will recess tomorrow for the holiday season. The session will reconvene January 3. The House of Representatives, working efficiently under the Republican majority organization, has been expeditiously approving appropriation bills and cleaning up various other affairs of the short session. And in the Senate due to postponement of matters in controversy considerable headway has been made.

Resumption of the session in January will not find such satisfactory and harmonious conditions long in existence. The first and in some respects, destined to be one of the most important and acrimonious contents to be considered by the Senate is the acceptance of Senator Smith's resignation. The Senate's attention to legislation will be consideration of Senator Ashurst's resolution denying a seat to Senator-elect Smith of Illinois.

SMITH ACCEPTS
Acceptance by Col. Smith of Gov. Small's appointment to complete the unexpired term of the late Senator McKinley was announced by the Illinois Governor today and Col. Smith, who is also Senator-elect from Illinois, will present his credentials as soon as Congress reconvenes in January.

Indications point to his rejection, but this will not be accomplished without prolonged and embittered debate. Many Senators feel that the chief objection to Smith is based on partisanship, and it is charged that Democratic zeal has overstepped itself in condemning Smith before he has had an opportunity to speak in his own defense.

The three most contests now in prospect, that of Smith of Illinois, Gov. of Maine and Vane of Pennsylvania, all Republicans, involve the use of money, but each case presents sharp variations from the other two. In the charges against Col. Smith it is asserted not only that he spent an excessive amount of money in his primary campaign, but that he accepted contributions under improper circumstances.

The charge against Mr. Vane does not concern itself so much with the origin of the campaign contributions, but in their expenditure. Mr. Gould is charged neither with collecting money improperly nor with expending it improperly. He is accused in resolutions introduced by Senator Walsh of Montana with giving a bribe many years ago to a former Canadian Premier in exchange for railway concessions.

STATE RIGHTS ISSUE
In each instance the general charges now before the Senate were made public and related to the Small campaign preceding success at the polls for the three Senator-elects. It is argued by advocates of the state rights issue in question, that the Senate, in proposing to deny them admission, is invading the rights of the States and oversteering the reserved will of the people.

Thus far the desire of Democratic Senators for the party of elections has been extended to the Republican side. It appears inevitable, however, that the Senate will now be divided in a Democratic caucus, not only in Tennessee, where Senator Tyson is said to have spent huge sums to retain his seat, and in Louisiana, where excessive expenditures have been charged to Senator Broussard.

The prospect on the whole, is for stormy political weather. The incident in the House concerning the nation's defense policy has apparently died away as a result of the administration's acquiescence in the House. The House Committee's demand for an increase in the allotment of cruisers. That the increase is more a matter of expansion in policy than in actual increase in the number of ships is being constructed does not appear to be the Congressional mind.

COOLIDGE VIEW
President Coolidge let it be known today that he is willing for Congress to authorize ten additional cruisers, but he likewise made plain his conviction that construction of these ships should not begin until the Navy has completed the two airplane carriers and submarines now on order to be under construction.

His drew attention to the fact that the United States is now building the new cruisers to add to the ten already in commission and that a further addition of ten new ships would bring the cruiser strength of the Navy to twenty-five ships. Such increase would not place the United States in this class of ships on a par with Great Britain or Japan.

The President suggested that he would like to see the hands raised of all correspondents who had experienced the happy surprise of an increase as a result of the Presidential suggestion.

A hasty and cursory survey of the forty or more newspaper men grouped around the President's desk failed to discover an upraised hand.

STOCKTON IN JUBILEE AT GLAD NEWS

Passage of Harbor Bill Taken as Fulfillment of Seventy-five-Year Dream

STOCKTON, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—Stockton tonight received news of the passage of the national rivers and harbors bill in such a manner that visitors in this inland city wondered if New Year's Eve had arrived.

Weber, founder of the city, predicted that Stockton would one day become a great inland port with ocean vessels loading and discharging their cargoes here. The bill as passed tonight contains an item of $2,467,000, which, when added to $8,000,000 in bonds voted by this city, will be expended for the dredging of fourteen miles of the San Joaquin River and the construction of a deep-water channel.

The first report relative to the feasibility of a deep-water channel was made in 1871. The projected project has been underfoot in the minds of citizens here for about ten years.

Word that the project had successfully weathered its way through Congress without any opposition was the signal here tonight for a spontaneous celebration. Every fire siren on street corners, and every factory whistle was turned loose for thirty minutes. Automobiles paraded the streets, cheering their horns and Chamber of Commerce representatives and city officials, gathered in the City Hall to plan a monster street parade and celebration for tomorrow morning.

HARBOR BILL APPROVED

Vote in Senate 57 to 9

Provision for Expenditure of $70,000,000 Exceeds House Figures

Conference for Adjustments Will be Necessary Due to Amendments

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (P)—The rivers and harbors bill was passed tonight by the Senate.

The vote was 57 to 9. All provisions proposed by the Senate Commerce Committee as amendments to the House bill received approval.

The bill as approved by the Senate would authorize the expenditure of about $70,000,000 on river and harbor improvements in all sections of the country. The figure is higher than with Special Appropriation Act, and the Senate amendments the bill now goes to conference for adjustment of differences.

The bill would provide for the purchase of the Cape Cod Canal, the bill carries among other provisions authorization for the improvement of the Illinois River as a link in the Lakes-to-the-Gulf waterway.

The Illinois River improvement, which would cost $3,000,000, was originally proposed by Representative W. E. Hull, Republican, Illinois. It calls for a channel nine feet deep and 200 feet wide between Utica and the confluence of the river with the Mississippi.

COMPROMISE ADDED
Under a compromise reached in the Senate an amendment was added that nothing in the bill was to be construed as authorizing diversion of water from Lake Michigan at Chicago.

Provisions also are made for a district channel in the Missouri River from Kansas City to Sioux City, Iowa. The first appropriation would be $500,000.

From every corner of the floor Senators shot new proposals into the air. The House bill provided for a vote and almost without exception the amendments went in with a chorus of ayes.

Among the amendments introduced in the bill was one for the construction of inland waterways from Jacksonville, Fla., to Miami, seventy-five feet wide and eight feet deep, at a cost of $4,221,000.

Improvement of Crescent City Harbor, Cal., was included in the bill. Deepening of the Green Bay (Wis.) harbor channel.

Improvement of the mouth of the Willamette River, Oregon, and Grays Harbor and Olympia Harbor, Washington.

Improvement of the San Joaquin River, California, to the breaker at Fairport, Cal.

Improvement of Sandusky Harbor, O., and improvement of Galveston Channel, Texas.

Improvement of Mulberry Creek, Louisiana, and the Willamette River, Oregon.

OPPOSITION FAILS
Opposition to the bill collapsed after failure of a two-day fight against the provision for purchase of Cape Cod Canal. Attempts by Senator Howell, Republican, Nebraska, to cut the purchasing price to seventy-five cents a foot, and lower, were turned down rapidly.

While some House provisions were slightly amended, the bill as passed was struck out, although it was estimated almost 100 new provisions were added.

Senators voting against the bill were: Blaine, South Carolina; Ferris, Michigan; King, Utah, Democrat; and Cushman, Michigan, Democrat. North Dakota; Howell and Norris, Nebraska; Leavelle, Wisconsin, and Willis, Ohio, Republicans.

An amendment to authorize payment of $100,000 to the reclamation and improvement of the water of the Colorado River near the Tuma (Ariz.) irrigation project was approved without a record vote.

Approval also was given to proposed amendments to the Willamette River, Oregon.

Surveys of the following projects in addition to those ordered by the House were approved: Unquapa Harbor and River, Oregon; Columbia River, Washington; Green River and Snake River, Idaho; and Silligum River, Washington.

Hoover Comes Out in Favor of Dill's Proposal for Commission Rule

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—After another futile effort of the conference committee of the House and Senate to reach an agreement on legislation, the question of national regulation of radio broadcasting appeared tonight to be completely up in the air.

The conferees dispersed to meet again on January 4. In the meantime efforts will be made in informal negotiations to formulate the basis of a compromise between the divergent House and Senate bills.

If no agreement is reached next month, the House conferees plan to confer by a bill introduced by the House and move the passage of an emergency resolution suspending the granting of new licenses pending regulatory legislation by the Seventieth Congress. The Senate conferees said they will support the emergency resolution if permanent legislation cannot be passed by March 4.

FLURRY CAUSED
One incident of the day caused a flurry of excitement. Before the conference committee met, the House conferees sought the advice of Secretary of Commerce Hoover on the compromise proposal of Senator Dill, Democrat, Washington; that for one year the Federal Radio Commission should be continued in the White bill, as passed by the House, shall be given all the functions of the regulatory commission of original jurisdiction provided for in the Dill bill as passed by the Senate.

Mr. Secretary Hoover advised was not disclosed, but he did say, it transpired, that he is in favor of conferring authority on the commission provided in the White bill to allocate wave lengths and assign broadcasting licenses.

Under the terms of the White bill the commission would take over the duties of the Federal Radio Commission, as provided in the White bill, or by an independent commission, as provided in the Dill bill, the preference expressed by Mr. Hoover for committing this function to a commission favors the cause of the Senate.

DILL URGES BILL
It was soon noted about the Capitol that Mr. Hoover had cut the ground from under the House conferees by declaring in favor of the essential principle of the Senate bill, although he had helped to draft the House bill and had been instrumental in committing the President to support of that measure. In the ensuing meeting of the conferees one of the House members remarked that "Hoover has run out on us."

Secretary Hoover declined to discuss his conference with the House conferees committee headed by Representative Scott, Republican, Michigan, chairman of the Merchant Marine Committee, and Representative White, Republican, Maine, author of the House bill. He stated, however, that his position from the start has been that wave lengths should be allocated and licenses assigned by a commission instead of the Secretary of Commerce. He is not in favor of the entire regulation of radio being committed to a commission as provided by the Senate bill.

With Mr. Hoover favoring an important feature of the Senate bill, Senator Dill pressed the House conferees to agree to his compromise proposal. He would have a commission survey the radio field and within one year determine who are to be licensed and who are not to be allowed to operate broadcasting stations. It would be up to this commission to eliminate broadcasting interference by reducing the number of broadcasters from 600, now operating, to the 300 which can be accommodated on the eighty-nine available wave lengths. It would be up to the commission to designate the 300 broadcasters to be put off the air.

PURPOSE CITED
After veering out the broadcasters and assigning new licenses the commission, under the Dill compromise proposal, would report to the status of an appellate body receiving a permanent compensation for not more than 120 days a year, as provided by the House bill. Representative White refused to agree to the compromise and advocated reporting a disagreement to the House at once, but was dissuaded by Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, who urged further negotiations.

Senator Dill denied that his opposition to emergency legislation suspending license of broadcasting licenses is inspired by an influential broadcaster in his State who is rushing a station to completion.

"There are two big stations being built in my State, one in Seattle and one in Spokane," said Senator Dill. "I am not favoring them. I am against them. If we pass the emergency resolution we shall get no permanent legislation, so I am opposed to it, except as a last resort if no bill can be passed by March 4."

FRANCE MAY TAKE OVER BROADCASTING
PARIS, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—It is understood that January 1 the government will declare all broadcasting to be a state monopoly, as well as radiophonic activities of all other kinds.

The Temps tonight protests against this measure as a sure handicap to the development of wireless in France. It points to the United States, where broadcasting has assumed great proportions, and also to Germany, where private companies operate. It also refers to a plan which is to be put into effect in England the first of the year, where the government will control and supervise broadcasting by private companies.

The Temps thinks the government scheme to stop private broadcasting is against the public interest, saying private enterprise can do infinitely more than government monopoly in the development of wireless. It points to the French telephone system as a sample of state operation.

criminal cases to be dealt with and do not want to be unfair to the District Attorney.

"But I feel it my duty to advise the citizens of Los Angeles of these miscarriages of justice and of the many failures to prosecute, so that they may organize to assist the District Attorney in a strict and impartial administration of justice. The sending of an innocent man to prison is a gross outrage. The failure to prosecute felons is a menace to every honest citizen."

AIDE OF KEYES REPLIES TO CHARGES
In response to Gov. Richardson's charges against the local District Attorney's office concerning the conviction of Clifford A. McCormick, who was pardoned yesterday, Chief Deputy District Attorney Davis said:

"McCormick was convicted by a regularly empaneled jury on evidence furnished by the Sheriff's office. A motion for a new trial in his behalf before the trial judge was denied and the Supreme Court affirmed the conviction. That's all this office has to say about it."

Mr. Davis made the statement in the absence of District Atty. Keyes, who worked before his conviction. Superior Judge Ketch, who presided at the trial, was said to be too ill to comment on the matter.

"Gov. Richardson has done a great deal in the interest of justice in the case of McCormick," declared John N. Pryor, head of the detective agency for which the pardoned man worked before his conviction.

Mr. Pryor declared McCormick was working as an authorized detective and was among those who uncovered the murders of Joseph Smith and his sons, and later prominent of the underworld and in the interests of justice he was pardoned.

The case involved some $100,000 of the McCormick company's money and later prominent of the underworld and in the interests of justice he was pardoned.

The local law enforcement authorities are said to be in a state of confusion over the case. The purchase of the McCormick company's money was said to be a gross outrage. The failure to prosecute felons is a menace to every honest citizen."

Now "Carbon" Means More Power!

You, too, should know the features of Union-Ethyl Gasoline. Motorists by the hundred thousands are adopting it. Ten gallons in your motor will tell you more than anything that we can put in print. Go make the test today. Prove it in this new-type fuel—a new experience in driving motor cars.

Note These Advantages

1. 99 per cent of all your carbon "knocks" immediately disappear.
2. As carbon collects your motor's power increases. Carbon no longer is a hindrance, but a help!
3. Your motor picks up faster in traffic. Throttle down to 2 miles an hour if you wish. No knocking even at that speed! Less gear shifting in the traffic jams.
4. Push the throttle to the floor at any speed and note the immediate response. Try this in passing others on the road.
5. Vibration is notably reduced—even entirely eliminated in some cases. You drive a "sweeter," smoother car.
6. Take the worst hill you know. Note that you go farther in high without a "knock" than you ever did before.

7. Step on the starter on the coldest morning. Don't use the choke. Notice how quickly you can start. Back right out without the inconvenience of noxious gases or delay in warming up. Union-Ethyl costs only 3c per gallon more than ordinary gasoline! Don't you think it worth a trial if it does all that we claim?

Don't Delay!

Every day you put off using Union-Ethyl Gasoline you are missing an interesting new experience with fuels—a brand-new thrill in motor operation. Get behind the steering wheel with Union-Ethyl in your tank. See what the new fuel means.

All local Union Service Stations have it.

Union-ETHYL 400 end-point GASOLINE

Other Facts You Should Know

"Ethyl Gas" was developed by "General Motors" after seven years of research.

Used by the U. S. Navy in dirigibles and seaplanes—by all winning drivers of every race sponsored by the American Automobile Association in the last four years.

And now by scores of thousands of motorists the country over, who want only the best.

LICENSED BY THE ETHYL GASOLINE
CORPORATION

"Union Non-Deto- nating Gasoline" With Multiplied Effect

Union Gasoline has always been (as advertised for years) a "non-detonating" fuel.

In its manufacture Union Gasoline is limited to 400 end-point by distillation test, thus producing a fuel that instantly vaporizes completely in the carburetor and yields quicker starting and acceleration.

"Ethyl" also is a "non-detonating" agent highly concentrated and with a multiplied effect.

So the two in combination—"Union" and "Ethyl" gas—make the most remarkable improvement in motor fuel since motor cars were first invented.

No other so-called "knockless" compound can produce Ethyl results.

The fuel you buy, therefore, must be genuine Union-Ethyl if you want all that we offer here.

Get it today and try it. Learn what Union-Ethyl is.

CHICAGO SLAYER OF BOY INDICTED

Son of Rich Family Jailed on Charge of Murder
Action of Grand Jury Comes Five Days After Crime

State's Attorney Will Fight for Death Penalty

CHICAGO, Dec. 21. (AP)—Five days after he beat 8-year-old Walter Smith to death with a blacksmith's hammer in the loft of a riding club, Harold Joseph Croarkin, 26 years old, was indicted today for murder. Since his surrender Sunday, Croarkin, the son of a wealthy family, had been held in strict seclusion without a formal charge, but today he was placed in the County Jail. Five witnesses, including the father of the dead boy, and Dr. Jacob Goodman, Croarkin's physician, appeared before the grand jury. The coroner's physician testified that the lad had not been mistreated and that testimony was accepted as bearing out Croarkin's confession that he saw the child in fear that little Walter would tell his parents that Croarkin had tried to force him to commit an act of degeneracy. Croarkin was identified today by six little girls as having made improper advances toward them within two months. Croarkin has confessed that he mis- treated three little girls and five boys, but he denied that any of the half-dozen told who confronted him today were among his victims. The date for Croarkin's trial will be set tomorrow. Robert E. Crowe, State's Attorney, announced that he personally will lead the prosecution, with a demand for the death penalty. Mr. Crowe as chief justice of the Criminal Courts sentenced to death Thomas Fitzgerald, an aged eccentric, who criminally attacked and slew 6-year-old Janet Wilkerson, the only death sentence upon a plea of guilty in Cook county in thirty years, and in Cook county in thirty years, and personally led the prosecution of Na- than F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, who pleaded guilty as the slay- ers of Bobby Frank. They are serv- ing life sentences in the State peni- tentiary.

SPOKANE BARTENDERS GET SALARY INCREASE

SPOKANE (Wash.) Dec. 21. (AP)—Be- cause of a series of Federal raids on local "soft-drink" establishments last week, salaries of bartenders have ad- vanced from $6 to $8 a day, with a shortage at that figure, government agents reported here today. The of- ficers estimated the number of such places here at 250, and figured the wage increase has meant a decrease of $500 a day in net profits of the proprietors.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR NAMED

SHERIFF OF YOLO NAMED IN RUM CASE

Indicted by Federal Jury on Charge of Tipping Off Bootleggers on Raids

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21. (AP)—Sheriff J. W. Monroe of Yolo county was among twenty-five persons in- dicted by a Federal grand jury here today. The sheriff was charged with violating the Volstead Act. The indictment was returned be- fore United States District Judge St. Sura. The sheriff, who has held his po- sition for twenty years, was charged with having protected bootlegging in- terests in his county, to have inter- ested himself in the operation of certain stills and to have "tipped off" bootleggers to projected raids by Federal agents. Sheriff Monroe was tried in the County Court recently on charges of irregularities in his office, and ac- quitted. The sheriff conspired with a num- ber of others in Yolo county and San Francisco to aid rum-running and rum-selling activities in Yolo coun- ty, the indictment charges. The indictment was based on tes- timony of two Federal prohibition agents who have conducted a num- ber of raids in Yolo county. Names of the twenty-five others in- dicted will be withheld until "im- portant" arrests have been made. Federal authorities said. Monroe, re- cently was selected for a fifth term by the largest majority he had ever polled.

Andrews was not in Wash- ington and reports that he has decided to appoint Everington as the suc- cessor to Col. Fifth, prohibition en- forcement administrator in Southern California, could not be confirmed. Before leaving his hotel Col. Ever- ington declined to comment on his conference with Gen. HIGH COURT BACKS BUS FARE BOOST

Pasadena Denied Writ of Review on State Rail Commission Regulation

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21. (Exclu- sive)—In denying the City Commis- sioners of Pasadena a writ of review today, the State Supreme Court tac- itly affirmed the jurisdiction of the State Railroad Commission to regu- late bus line rates within the limits of a municipality regardless of con- tracts between the municipality and the carrier. About two years ago, the Pacific Electric abolished an electric trolley line in the Crown City, substituting therefor a motor bus service. The substitution, according to the plaint of Pasadena City Commissioners, was with the agreement that the Pacific Electric would charge a 6-cent rate on its buses. Last summer the Pacific Electric applied to the Railroad Commission for permission to raise the rate to 7 cents and permission was granted. Pasadena applied to the Supreme Court for a writ of review, contend- ing it had a contract with the red line on a 6-cent fare basis, and main- tained the contract was binding be- cause the line is operated wholly within the Pasadena city limits. In denying the petition for the writ, the Supreme Court justices made no comment.

SCIENTIST AT PASADENA

Dr. Michelson Arrives from Chicago to Continue Work at Mt. Wilson Observatory

PASADENA, Dec. 21.—Dr. Albert A. Michelson, internationally famous scientist and head of the department of physics of the University of Chicago, arrived in Pasadena today to conduct important experiments at the Mt. Wilson Observatory, where he has been carrying on scientific investigations for the last six summers.

Dr. Michelson's return at this time was made necessary after weather conditions forced him last summer to cut short his investigations into the speed of light. With ten days of clear weather now, however, he hopes to complete his series of experiments in the next few days.

Army Airmen Take Off on Epic Flight Around Southern Continent

Blazing a Trail of Friendship Into Countries of South America the Army's Pan-American argosy which will fly around the rim of the southern continent, left Kelly Field, San Antonio, Tex., yesterday. Five of the complement of officers who will man the six planes are pictured above, left to right, Lieut. E. H. Schildhauer, Lieut. H. C. Roald, Lieutenant Commander H. T. Bartlett, Lieut. L. W. Curtin and Lieut. B. J. Connell. (P. & A. photo.)

A Lesson in Expert Assault and Battery as it is practiced among the horned gladiators of Deerland, is being given the apparently disinterested buck on the left. The two combatants, caught in conflict on an English estate, are hopelessly deadlocked. Death would be their lot in the wilds. (P. & A. photo.)

Plan of Which Mission Playhouse May be Made Self-Sustaining as a commercial theater was discussed yesterday at luncheon at Jonathan Club. Originally intended only for presentation of John Steven McGroarty's historical romance of early California, it can be made a successful financial venture, it is believed. Architect's drawing of playhouse above.

An Important Role in the affairs of Rumania will be played by Miron Christea, new Rumanian patriarch, in event of Ferdinand's death. (P. & A. photo.)

The Biggest Sheet of Music Ever Published, carrying the words and music of the official song of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses, "Roses Are in Bloom," lived a short day before it was sacrificed for public purposes. However, the pictorial story of its ephemeral existence is good art, and Martha Messerole is charming as she crashes through the record sheet. (Eyre Powell Press Service photos.)

OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 593

The Battle of Perryville.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

WHILE BRAGG'S CONFEDERATE ARMY WAS MARCHING NORTHWARD INTO KENTUCKY, GEN. BUELL, AT MURFREESBORO, TENN., LEARNED FROM INTERCEPTED DISPATCHES THAT LOUISVILLE AND NOT NASHVILLE, WAS HIS OPPONENT'S OBJECTIVE. BUELL AT ONCE SET OUT FOR LOUISVILLE, REACHING THAT PLACE AHEAD OF THE CONFEDERATES.

AT LOUISVILLE, BUELL RECRUITED HIS ARMY TO NEARLY 60,000 AND MOVED SOUTHWARD TO OPPOSE BRAGG'S ADVANCE. THE LATTER, HEAVILY OUTNUMBERED, FELL BACK TO SPRINGFIELD AND ORDERED KIRBY SMITH'S DIVISION TO ABANDON FRANKFORT AND JOIN HIM AT PERRYVILLE.

BRAGG REACHED PERRYVILLE ON SEPT. 7TH (1862), WITH THE UNION ARMY CLOSE BEHIND. ALTHOUGH NEITHER SIDE WAS PREPARED FOR ACTION, A BATTLE WAS FOUGHT THE NEXT DAY, THE CONFEDERATES LOSING 3,400 MEN AND THE FEDERALS 4,200.

BRAGG RETREATED TO NASHVILLE, WHERE HE EFFECTED A JUNCTION WITH THE ARMY OF GEN. JOSEPH E. BUELL. BUELL DID NOT PURSUE HIM, AND THE ARMY RETURNED TO EASTERN KENTUCKY. A VAST QUANTITY OF CAPTURED WEAPONS AND AMMUNITION WERE DESTROYED.

These daily history strips make a unique pictorial history of America. Hundreds are clipping them daily and pasting them in scrapbooks.

SECURITY BANK

Cash DividendsShareholders to Receive 10 Per Cent of HoldingsInvestment Company Will Pay $2 Distribution

Declaration of a 10 per cent stock dividend and an extra cash dividend of $2 a share for the stockholders of the Security Bank and Savings Bank was announced yesterday by J. F. Bartlett, president, following a meeting of the board of directors. The directors also ordered the payment of the regular quarterly dividend of $4 a share.

The stock dividend will be paid to stockholders of record the 31st inst. in the proportion of one new share for every ten shares owned. The distribution of the new stock, the capital of the Security will be increased from $10,000,000 to $11,000,000. Before giving effect to the increase the Security already had the largest bank capitalization in the city.

Payment of the extra cash dividend of $2 will be made to the stockholders by the Security Company, the investment company wholly owned by the bank. The stockholders received a similar extra last year from the Security Company.

The policy of paying stock dividends has been followed by the Security Bank and Savings Bank with a considerable degree of regularity. Last year the stockholders received one new share for every seven owned, increasing the capitalization from $8,500,000 to $10,000,000. Since that time 250,000 shares have been issued for shares acquired by purchase. At the time of organization in 1920, the Security was capitalized at $25,000.

In conformity with the usual policy of the Security, the same annual dividend rate of $10 a share will be paid on the increased capitalization. As a Christmas present, the bank is treating its stockholders handsomely through this cash dividend, receiving an annual dividend return from 10 shares of $170, compared with $160 on the 100 shares owned before the stock dividend.

The directors also authorized the payment of the semiannual interest at this time, at the interest payment for the year to $4,000,000.

The price will be the average posted by principal companies in the field.

Phillips Oil Company is a purchaser of crude in that field where it has a large gathering system and it will build a trunk line to a new 10,000-barrel refinery which the Humble program calls for to be built near the field.

Production of Richfield Now
Centered Here

Because of the proximity to its main refinery of newly developed and mainly purchased production, the Richfield Oil Company has allowed its contract with the North American Consolidated to expire, C. M. Fuller, vice-president, announced yesterday.

Richfield has been buying under contract from 5000 to 6000 barrels of crude oil daily from North American, increasing the production in the Sunset-Midway field.

Through increases in its own production in Southern California and advantageous contracts with other Southern California producers, Richfield, Mr. Fuller said, has more than offset the purchases from North American Consolidated. The Richfield production now exceeds 80 per cent of the company's refinery requirements.

The Marland contract is giving to Richfield about 10,000 barrels daily, while other favorable agreements have been made with producers in Huntington Beach, Signal Hill and Santa Fe Springs without premium.

Mr. Fuller also said that Richfield's cashed-in production is now running around 60,000 gallons daily, compared with 50,000 gallons a short time ago. Current gasoline output is around 12,500,000 gallons monthly, which will now retail at higher prices as a result of the general increase in gasoline announced yesterday.

BUSY DAYS IN COAST PORTS

Foreign Commerce of Los Angeles Harbor Up 40 Per Cent in Nine Months; Total Trade Gains

BY EARLE E. CROWE

All along the Pacific Coast the principal ports have had a busy year. Los Angeles Harbor will probably again capture second-place honors among all ports in the United States in the total volume of water commerce and will also hang up a notable record in foreign trade. The Pacific Coast as a whole, excluding Alaska, reported an increase of 28 per cent in exports for the first nine months of the year.

The increasing importance of Los Angeles Harbor in foreign commerce is demonstrated by the gain of 40 per cent in foreign trade for the first nine months of 1927, compared with the gain of 18 per cent for the other principal ports on the Coast. Oil, earthenware, cotton, canned and dried fruits accounted largely for the increase.

While these figures make interesting reading in tracing the gradual rise of foreign commerce on the Pacific waterway, they only tell a feeble story in relation to the potential exchange of goods between the countries fronting on the Pacific. Men of vision like C. R. Bunker Hunt fully appreciate the latent possibilities and are going their part to hasten the development of the Pacific waterway in Southern California Business recently called attention to the transportation of goods from the Atlantic countries that is gradually materializing.

RICH MARKET WAITS
"China," he wrote, "needs railroads and highways and mass education, and a multitude of other things which enter into modern life. With the advent of the Pacific waterway of living will be raised among the Chinese, and if the buying power of the Chinese is raised 1 cent a day it will mean nearly $1,500,000,000 a year."

And further on, in mentioning the contributions from the Pacific countries in the way of raw materials: "Silks and tea from Japan and China, soy beans from Manchuria, wood oil, peanuts and many other commodities from China, hemp, copra, coconut oil, sugar and rubber from the Philippine Islands; most of the world's supply of crude rubber from Malaysia, as well as spices, tin, kapok, wool and masts from Australia and New Zealand; jute, burlap, sisal, and other raw materials from the United States; and a host of other raw materials from the Pacific supply."

While it will be some time before the trade that Capt. Dollar visualizes is adequately exploited, satisfactory progress has been made, as the figures for the nine months indicate. From Washington down to Los Angeles and out to the Hawaiian Islands the Pacific has been a busy waterway. The Oregon customs district, according to an official report, recorded the outstanding performance, showing a gain of 10 per cent in exports and 10 per cent in imports and exports combined.

Exports through San Francisco increased 10.8 per cent over the first nine months of 1927, and imports increased 11 per cent. Exports of the district were valued at $1,000,000,000, while imports were valued at $1,000,000,000. NEW YORK BOND PRICES

In this field was the announcement by Speyer & Co. that a $4,000,000 Bulgarian forty-year 7 per cent loan would be placed on the market tomorrow at a price of 92. An additional $2,400,000 issue of sterling bonds will be offered in Europe.

A fair demand developed for high-grade public utilities, but railroad and industrial issues went begging. Denver and Rio Grande Western 5 1/2 per cent bonds, which had been selling at 101 1/2, declined to 101 1/4. Standard Oil of New Jersey debentures started at 101 7/8 and the bonds later sold up to 102.

The final step in the major financing program of the Long Bell Lumber Company will be taken tomorrow with the sale of $2,200,000 five-year 6 per cent notes, convertible into first mortgage bonds of the Longview, Portland and Northern Railway. The notes will be priced at 98. Offering also will be made of $7,500,000 Wisconsin Central three-year 8 per cent notes.

The continued upward slide of bonds in the money market and the high level of the stock market have caused some speculation in the money market, but the market is still in a state of uncertainty.

Why the Difference in Yields?

6%—6 1/2%—7%

When bonds we sell are marked to yield 6% or 6 1/2% instead of the predominant 7%, they are being sold at a premium. The wholesale price we pay for the bonds in the first place, determines to a large degree the sale price and yield.

Our current offerings are a number of well-secured issues yielding 6 1/2% and 7% Tax Free.

Don Simon I. Patino, President of the Company, has summarized his letter describing the properties and history of the Company as follows:

Organization and Property: "Patino Mines & Enterprises Consolidated (Incorporated) was organized on July 5, 1924, for the purpose of acquiring the Uncia and Llaguaga groups of tin mines located in Bolivia. In addition, the Company has purchased the Machacamarca-Uncia Railway, connecting its plants with the main line of the Antofagasta & Bolivia Railway, fifty-seven miles distant.

Earnings and Production: Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co. advise that the earnings of Patino Mines & Enterprises Consolidated (Incorporated), before charging depreciation and depletion, as shown by the accounts audited in Bolivia by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse, Faller & Co., but charging additional Bolivian profits taxes paid, to the years to which they were applicable, were as below. The production of tin, as shown by the Company's records, is also given.

	Production of Tin in Long Tons	Earnings as above	Per Share
Nine months ended December 31, 1924	10,284	$3,309,277	$3.84
Year ending December 31, 1925	10,039	7,016,222	5.08

These figures are based on the Company's method of valuing the inventory of concentrates on hand at the end of each fiscal period at the estimated net selling price.

For the ten months ended October 31, 1926, production as reported by the Treasurer of the Company was 8,733 long tons and earnings as shown by the Company's books were $5,271,885 (at $4.86 per £1).

The estimated visible ore, which included only "positive" and "probable" bodies, as given in the report of Messrs. Yeatman & Berry, Consulting Mining Engineers, of New York, completed early in 1926, amounted to a total of 1,061,000 tons before sorting, having a total tin content of 50,289 long tons.

The General Manager has reported to the Company that there is every reason to believe that the fine tin contents of new ore reserves developed during 1926 will be equal to the total tonnage of fine tin extracted from the mines during 1926.

Distributions on Shares: For the nine months ended December 31, 1924, the Company made distributions on the stock aggregating $3,219,481, equal to $2.33 per share of stock now outstanding. For the year ended December 31, 1925, the Company paid $4,355,469, equal to $3.15 per share; and for the first ten months of the current year $3,015,161, or $2.18 per share. Conversions from Pounds Sterling have been made at the rate prevailing on the day on which the distributions were paid. These payments have been referred to as distributions, rather than as dividends, as this being a mining company, they must be regarded partly as a return of capital and partly as dividends out of profits on the capital invested, depending upon the life of the mines.

Engineers' Report: A thorough and exhaustive examination of the properties of Patino Mines & Enterprises Consolidated (Incorporated) was completed by Messrs. Yeatman & Berry, Consulting Mining Engineers, of New York, early in 1926. In their report they refer to the properties of the Company as "the two greatest tin mines in Bolivia and probably in the world." The examination, which consumed about six months' time, involved the taking and assaying of over 22,000 samples. This report includes a history and description of the properties, past profits and dividends, and an estimate of the visible ore reserves and of the operating profits to be derived therefrom. Copies of this report are on file in the offices of the Bankers and in the offices of the Company, both in New York, and are there available for inspection.

For more detailed information reference is made to circular containing copy of the letter of Senior Don Simon I. Patino and extracts from the report of Messrs. Yeatman & Berry heretofore referred to, copies of which circular will be furnished by the bankers upon request.

It is expected that delivery of temporary stock certificates (exchangeable for definitive stock certificates when ready for delivery) will be made on or about January 1, 1927, at the office of Lehman Brothers, 16 William Street, New York, N. Y., against payment therefor in New York funds.

GOOPS!

A Day's Lesson in Manners for Children

WALKING
The best of exercise, they say, is walking, every single day. Some Goops are very lazy, though, and have to ride, where e'er they go. It isn't to be wondered at that they get flabby, weak and fat.

Kelly Convicted of Killing Three in San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21. (AP)—Clarence (Buck) Kelly, asserted leader of a bandit gang which perpetrated five murders in three nights during October, was found guilty of first-degree murder in the Superior Court today, the jury making no recommendation. Sentence was set for next Monday.

The court must sentence Kelly to the gallows under the law. Kelly's mother, who was at his side throughout the trial, rushed to his arms at the verdict and went back to the jail with him. She appeared nearly collapsed.

It took the jury of seven men and five women but thirty minutes to find Kelly guilty of all of the three murders. He displayed no emotion.

Civil Authorities Asked to Aid Hunt for Navy Pay Clerk and Missing Mess Fund

SUSPECT GONE FOR SIX WEEKS

U.S.S. California Sailor Has Been Sought in vain

Fleet Officials Won't Tell Sum That Disappeared

Tip Received That Man Seen on Mexican Border

Mess funds amounting to several thousands of dollars have been stolen from the U.S.S. California, and Charles A. Traugher, pay clerk of the dreadnaught, has been missing since November 8, last, naval intelligence officers admitted yesterday.

For six weeks members of the naval intelligence section have combed Southern California in their search for Traugher. Last evening, when every effort had failed to recover the lost money or find any trace of the missing man, Rear-Admiral Joseph B. McKean, commander of the Eleventh Naval District, broke the naval silence and publicly sought the aid of civil authorities in apprehending Traugher.

Officers of the California still declined, however, to discuss the loss, nor would they even estimate the amount of money that had been taken. It was rumored in other fleet quarters, however, that the sum is "more than $8000."

Traugher was a trusted clerk and is known to have handled large sums for the officers' mess. He disappeared without leave and was absent several days before a check of his accounts revealed a startling shortage, it was said.

Rear-Admiral McKean's appeal to the civil authorities was directed largely to the police and county officials of San Diego, following receipt of a tip that Traugher had been seen in La Jolla and had been a lavish buyer in the border hotels, cafes and saloons. Rear-Admiral McKean asked directly that Traugher, if found, be arrested immediately and held for naval authorities.

TEMPLE LEADER BREAKS SILENCE

In court last Saturday. It was rumored that he had not retained an attorney and had followed plans to spend the holidays with his parents in San Francisco. He is expected to appear again publicly, however, next Monday at 10 a. m. for arraignment before Superior Judge McLaughlin, at which time a trial date will be set.

Dist. Atty. Keyes, on his way westward, finally arrived in Chicago yesterday, dispatches following his appearance in that city when Ormiston was there in the hands of "private captives" was expected, but when the Los Angeles county official stepped off the train he discovered that the elusive radio operator was awaiting him in California.

STATEMENT ISSUED

Following is the statement issued yesterday by Mrs. McPherson:

"It has been nearly two months since I have made any reference to my case either from pulpit or press. This attitude was in advice of my counsel and friends, and I have with them that only a weary public was reading these absurd stories.

"However, in the last few days there has been such a smother screen of innuendo and indirect reference that I feel that in justice to my hundreds of thousands of friends all over the world I owe a few words at this time. Of course, this condition has been heightened by Mr. Ormiston's return to Los Angeles and the thousands of words which have been written about him.

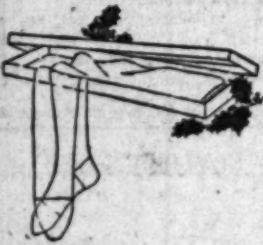

"First, I want to set forth distinctly that the facts of my kidnapping which I related when I appeared in Agnes Prieta, Mex., on June 23 of this year, were true in every detail. In all the confusion of late the truth apparently has been shoved into the background and forgotten; but my story is and was true and always will be true.

"I have not seen Mr. Ormiston since January 11, with the exception of once, and that was when he entered Angeles Temple for a few moments at the close of a meeting.

WORK GOES ON

"I want the world to know that Angeles Temple is still packed to capacity and that at service after service scores are giving their hearts to Christ. Our membership has almost doubled during the last few months.

"How did you know I wanted that?"

Welcome to Kriss Kringle Undampened by Rain

Throng See Snowland Float Shows and a drizzling rain failed to deter children and their parents from coming out by the thousands to see Santa Claus and his reindeer at Long Beach and other points yesterday. The upper picture shows a portion of the Long Beach crowd on the street as Santa and the reindeer approach. Lower—The harbor district welcomes Santa and his reindeer aboard the Snowland float.

Ten thousand a year have knelt at the altars of Christmas, and more than 8000 a year have been baptized in water during the four years since the temple opened. Hundreds of young men and women are training for the ministry. Thirty-five hundred are in our Sunday-school every Lord's Day morning.

"Though I, as pastor and founder of this work, have suffered only as a mother, a pastor and an innocent woman could suffer, I am trusting in God and carrying on, endeavoring to serve the Master whose servant I am."

"How have I been able to carry on during these past terrible months? These factors have contributed to my strength—the help and comfort of my Heavenly Father; the knowledge of my own innocence; the love, confidence and prayers of my hosts of friends who have remained unshaken through every storm."

"I hope and pray that the New Year will bring to my friends peace, comfort and success, and I hope that I may be allowed the same."

"Christmas is here, and my thoughts and those of my people are centered upon bringing cheer and happiness to others. We want to make this Yuletide a period devoted to beauty, happiness, goodwill, contentment and peace on earth."

"I desire to extend to all the greetings of the season—a merry Christmas and a joyous New Year—and to express the desire that malice, hatred, bitterness and ill-will may be washed from the hearts and minds of all, and that the message of the angels shall reign throughout the earth."

JUDGES FETED AS TERMS END

at luncheon as guests of the club. They came from homes where there is to be no Christmas, according to Mrs. Erwin P. Werner, in whose charge they were, and many of them are the children of disabled war veterans. Each child was given a gift and a box of candy by Judge Charles Burrell in the role of Santa Claus.

One hundred and forty-two members of the Justitia Club were present at the luncheon. There were a musical program during and after luncheon, and a series of eight-hand tricks for the benefit of the youngsters.

JUDGES ENGAGE IN THREE-SIDED SWEARING

The corridors of the Courthouse yesterday resounded with some of the most complicated swearing that has ever been heard in all of the years it has been the seat of justice, the high, the middle and the low.

Judge Bishop swore. Judge Edmonds swore. Judge Hazlett swore.

Each of them swore directly at the other two, the best of feeling prevailed, and a fine time was had by all.

The judges were swearing each other into office, the first time three judges ever reciprocated in that duty. Each, having been elected to fill an unexpired term at the November elections, was eligible to qualify as judge Edmonds by judicial council assignment, and Bishop and Hazlett by gubernatorial appointment. Thus they were eligible to swear each other into office.

Judge Keeler, who is succeeded by Judge Edmonds, retired from the bench yesterday.

Mrs. M. L. Hasbrouck, mother of the boy, told Policemen Hatcher and Vermeulen that some time ago telephone employees asked permission to use the garage for a temporary storage-house for tools but that the tools had been taken away. Police thought some dynamite cape might have been left behind.

The boy had gone to the garage to move the dog house, his mother said. He died from his injuries a few minutes after reaching Receiving Hospital.

ONE OF TRIO ARRESTED IN RUM CASE ESCAPES

Arrested at a so-called liquor "cutting" plant with two other men, Charles Vincent made good his escape, according to a report yesterday to Capt. Benton, head of Sheriff Trauger's dry enforcement squad.

Vincent, according to the report, was arrested with George Burke and Albert Lawrence, but jumped from an automobile and fled into the hills near Ascut Park, where the arrest was made, it was stated. The report also reported the finding of twenty gallons of white corn liquor and eighteen dozen empty quart bottles.

"It is: I'm God's gift to those who don't see Queen Marie."

During the picture taking that followed William B. Hart was posed with the humorist, and mused up Mayor Rogers's hair. "Don't do thatway, Bill," the executive admonished, "I'm just getting to that age when I can play hero parts."

"If you did, you saw the bathers draped on a slab outside, and not a soul in the water; but there was plenty of water—not like Los Angeles, I came through the Arizona desert the other day, and a fellow says: 'Los Angeles wants water—we've got it from their ads—they say they've got everything there.'"

"But we've got everything here, it seems—a Chamber of Commerce, among other things, and taxes that go up and down, like every other town, there yet."

"I'm sorry you ladies got your chapeau ruint out here in the rain welcoming me, and listening to a lot of apologetic, but you know whom to make buy you new ones."

"Concluding, some of you wonder why I've been running around the country exhibiting myself, and I'll tell you the answer:

THOUSANDS OUT TO GREET SANTA

particular attention to the thousands of children of the Navy's officers and men who will not be able to be at home with their families on Christmas.

A great crowd of people was on hand at the harbor to welcome Santa Claus and to hear his interesting talk about the reindeer. While traveling to Wilmington from the harbor Santa Claus observed a little group of children—some twenty or thirty—drawn up alongside the road waiting for him, and he stopped the big float, called them to him and gave them a little talk.

By the time he had his lunch and was ready to drive his reindeer in Long Beach a drizzling rain had made the paved streets so slippery that he did not dare to take a chance on having Dancer or Franco or any of the rest of his reindeer fall and injure themselves. There were so many children and grown-ups waiting along the line of march that Santa could not disappoint them. He had the float with the reindeer and himself on it driven over the line of march.

It certainly made Santa feel good to see how many people were on the streets regardless of the rain. And the entire line of march was headed by automobiles loaded with children, their little heads poking out and hands waving as Santa drove by. Others stood with their parents on the street under umbrellas, and some stood without any protection.

Today Santa will start at Compton and wind up at Whittier, where he will drive his reindeer on the streets, provided it is not raining. He will be there, however, rain or shine.

RIOTOUS YOUTH AIDS OUTLINED

Reynold E. Blight declared that proficiency in arithmetic and spelling is more desirable than in any other subjects in Los Angeles business offices, in an address yesterday afternoon before the commercial teachers' section.

Book-keeping and business correspondence should also receive more attention in our high schools and good penmanship is essential, the speaker said.

This morning the speakers at the general sessions will be Dr. Frank N. Freeman, University of Chicago, Philharmonie Auditorium; Dr. C. J. Anderson of the same institution, Polytechnic High School Auditorium, and Dr. M. V. Orbes, University of Wisconsin, Trinity Auditorium.

The opening session of the southern section of the California Teachers' Association will be held tonight at the Little Theatre, with A. R. Clifton, president, in the chair, and Dr. William M. Davidson, Superintendent of Schools of Pittsburgh, as the chief speaker.

Optimism for the future and a profound faith in the youth of the day characterized the informal address of Mrs. Susan M. Dorey, superintendent of schools, to members of the California Teachers' Association, which will begin general sessions Thursday.

Wood visualized a system involving periods of four years each—kindergarten, primary, drill schools in fundamentals, junior high school and senior high schools. The junior high schools would include the higher grades as in operation now, while senior high schools would include the present junior colleges.

Under this system a student would enter a university from the junior instead of the freshman year.

McDowell Memorial Program Tonight

Employees of the Times-Mirror Printing and Binding House will have their voices and faces to the four winds Friday noon to welcome Kris Kringle and his reindeer, down from the frozen North, at their annual Christmas frolic in the Times-Mirror shop, 118 South Broadway.

Approximately 150 employees and special guests, including executive heads of the Times, will be in attendance at the carnival of fun. If last year's frolic is to be taken as a criterion.

Blue W. Crabb, general manager of the Times-Mirror Printing and Binding House, is director-general of preparations. He is authority for the announcement that elaborate arrangements have been completed for the first official visit of Santa Claus and his reindeer steeds at The Times house-warming party.

St. Nick will personally greet each of the little tots that are brought to the frolic by their parents. A big illuminated Christmas tree will grace the shop. Bats and a show, the nature of which is being kept a secret, will feature the Christmas Jinks, Mr. Crabb said.

Cunningham RADIO TUBES

For Extreme Economy, Efficiency, Convenience in dry cell operation

CK-220 in combination with C-399 or CK-299 is the ideal Cunningham equipment for dry battery operation sets.

CK-220 is a power amplifier and when used in the last audio stage to feed the loud speaker will bring your set up-to-the-minute. Tone quality then will be more than a term to you—it will be a definite factor in reception.

CK-299 and C-299, identical except for their bases, are general purpose types, extremely capable as radio frequency and preliminary audio frequency amplifiers, and as detectors. If your set is a late model, CK-299—with the standard CK base—will fit in. C-299 is for the older type of bayonet lock sockets.

Consider your radio dealer. He will tell you the right combination of Cunningham Radio Tubes for your receiver.

WHITE KING QUARTET
BECOMING REAL POPULAR

The program at KHJ last night opened as usual at 8 o'clock with a half-hour by the White King Male Quartet. This musical aggregation is becoming one of the most popular quartets on the air today and their fan mail for the month has already gone beyond the 2000 mark. Those who write in before Christmas will receive one of the new quartet holiday photos.

When 8:30 rolled around there was Uncle John and his children's hour. Charles D. McCoy and his harmonica band from the Los Angeles Play Ground Department played a group of selections, all of which were requested. "Cielito Lindo," that tantalizing Spanish tune, was the snappiest of the group and Gene Chorney, of the band, sang "Mary Lou."

George Kerr, mandolin soloist, and Leon Ramon, juvenile screen star, dropped into the studio for their last visit before the New Year, and took part in the program.

Queen Titania appeared in the studio promptly at 7 o'clock, but it was several moments later before the Sandman came as he had been out on the roof, where he had been watching the glow of the fairy moonbeams.

The Fairy Queen requested Uncle John to close his eyes and when he did so they were immediately transported to the Land of Ought-to-be.

The garden was entirely surrounded by trees and, as the three Radio Fairies sat on a bench in the midst of the beautiful flowers, fairy music depicted for them the seasons of spring, summer, fall and winter.

The leaves drifted from the trees, covering the ground with their golden and brown hues, and soft snow commenced to fall. Soon the entire landscape was clad in a blanket of pure white.

Then appeared a Christmas tree beside which stood good old Santa Claus and before him passed a never-ending line of children. To these little ones the patron saint of Christmas handed out gifts and the strange part of it all was that to those most poorly clad, evidently the unfortunate little mortals of the earth, Santa gave the most of his Christmas cheer.

As this vision faded there appeared in the distant background the brilliant rays of the setting sun across which drifted wisps of fleecy clouds which formed the words "Child Hunger Satisfied."

The three friends returned to the studio, across the Rainbow Bridge and while they were passing over the bridge Queen Titania told its fairy history.

The evening Scripture reading was delivered by Rev. Albert Claassen, pastor of the Immanuel Mennonite Church. H. M. Robertson of Lamanda Park, gave his weekly talk on dogs. His topic last night was "Choosing Puppies," and was full of practical suggestions on the subject.

The Los Angeles Railway Orchestra gave their Tuesday night hour of dance music from 10 to 11, with several of the latest hits of popular tunes and a group or two of request numbers.

The musical two-hour period from KHJ last night was in the nature of a French program with words by Saint-Saens, Debussy, Gillet, Pieni, Selets and others.

The talk of the evening was delivered by Lucien N. Brunswig, president of the Alliance Francaise. Capt. Charles Vial and his daughter presented French recitations, and Jacques Albert, pianist, assisted with the musical portion of the program.

SAN DIEGO LINE OPERATING

Regular passenger service on the San Diego and Arizona Railway, between Calexico and San Diego, was resumed yesterday, according to word received here by C. L. McPaul, assistant passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific. Train No. 8, connecting with the sixty-three-hour Golden State Limited, was the first passenger train to pass over the San Diego line today from the East. The railroad was washed out in a number of places west of El Centro by the severe storm that swept the Imperial Valley about a week ago.

"It is for us to give them a religion of action, a religion that ties up with life and not to expect them to sit and mull over abstractions."

Discussing science and faith, Dr. Martin declared that both are based on assumption and that, regardless of the truth or fallacy of their conclusions, the achievements in the material world and in human usage and conduct usually justify the assumptions.

Condition of Man Shot by Police Not Improved

Little change was reported yesterday at the General Hospital in the condition of Ivan F. Sandoval called upon the police after he said Moore had threatened his life when he was visiting Moore's mother, Mrs. George Moore, and his sister, Mrs. A. Thompson. Shirley and Peterson were sent to the house, where they met Moore outside. According to the two detectives, Moore began shooting when they questioned him.

TRAFFIC CHANGES VETOED

General Opposition Grets Proposals Advanced by Utilities Commissioner in Official Conference

A joint meeting of the Board of Public Utilities, the Traffic Commission, the Police Commission, the Traffic Committee of the City Council and Mayor Cryer to consider changes in the traffic ordinance proposed by Utilities Commissioner Laura B. Locke was conducted yesterday with no particular result. Most of the speakers opposed Commissioner Locke's proposals, and practically nobody favored them except the commissioner herself.

Among her suggestions were that the present parking prohibition in the central business area be extended half an hour each way and be in effect from 4 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.; that parking be prohibited altogether between 7 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. on First street, between Spring and Los Angeles streets, Fifth street between Olive and San Pedro streets, Sixth street between Hill and Los Angeles streets, and Main street between Broadway and Main street, and Eleventh street between Hill street and Broadway; that it be made unlawful for anyone to pass an excavation or similar obstruction; that loading stops between 4 and 6:30 p.m. be decreased to three minutes, and that red zones at corners be increased by two car lengths.

Clarence B. Southern, secretary of the Traffic Commission, said he opposed all the changes. He regarded, he said, the present ordinance as a model one, arrived at after years of study. To increase the prohibition

Board of Supervisors to end discussion of this matter and further delay and proceed in construction of the dam at the site approved by the vote of the people.

RULING OF IRISH COURT UP HERE

Relative in Irish Open Fight to Obtain Trust Fund in Los Angeles

Proceedings in Probate Court of the Irish Free State will be reviewed in the Superior Court here for the first time when a contest filed yesterday by Ellen Mahoney, the estate of the late Ellen Mahoney, comes to trial.

Charles Conner, who asserts he is acting in behalf of Irish relatives, has asked to be appointed administrator of a $2000 trust fund left by Mrs. Mahoney in this country. He filed documents from the Irish court.

Mrs. Mahoney, who admits she holds the $2000 fund, maintains the proceedings in Ireland did not determine that Mrs. Mahoney was a resident of the Irish Free State, or even that she had died.

Espee to Grant Veterans Leave to Go to Paris

Southern Pacific employees who are members of the American Legion will be afforded an opportunity to attend the convention of the Legion in Paris during September, 1927. Paul Shoup, executive vice-president of the company, has announced that leave of absence will be granted to employees who desire to make the trip.

Leave of absence also will be granted to employees on Southern Pacific steamship lines, the Texas and Louisiana lines and the Mexican line.

Auto Salesman Held for Fraud in Acceptances

P. E. Teichopp, automobile salesman of Whittier, yesterday was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Mangert on charges of conspiring to defraud the Mortgage and Acceptance Corporation of Kansas City, Mo., through the Hudson Motor Company of Leavenworth, Kan., by selling and reselling automobile paper on a single transaction.

Teichopp is the third man taken into custody on the same charges within the past two months and his detention marks the twelfth arrest in the same case since it was developed in the Midwest last summer.

The specific charge against the car salesman is selling a car to P. T. Oll of Kansas City. The defendant will be arraigned today before United States Commissioner Reed on removal proceedings.

NEW PLAYHOUSE PLANS OUTLINED

Mission Theater May Run on Commercial Basis

Proposal Provides Project
Means of Support

Guests at Luncheon Hear
Details of Idea

(Illustration on Picture Page)
A plan by which the Mission Playhouse, originally intended only for the presentation of John Steven Mc-Groarty's historical romances of early California, may also be used as a commercial theater, was outlined by speakers yesterday at a luncheon at the institution thus may be made at least self-sustaining and possibly show a profit to stockholders.

Net earnings, it was suggested,
might be applied to the preservation of ancient California landmarks. Since the Mission Play is presented only during four months of the year, it could be used the remainder of the time for grand opera performances, for motion pictures or other performances of particular interest. Norman Sprowl, business manager, estimated receipts for the first year at approximately $400,000, he said.

The purpose of yesterday's meeting primarily was to enlist the assistance and co-operation of every newspaper editor in Southern California and the project was discussed from every conceivable angle.
Building of the playhouse already is under way and it is hoped to have it completed so that the play may open not later than February 18.
It has been almost entirely resigned, the first plans having been found unsatisfactory from the standpoint of a commercial theater. It was originally planned by Arthur Benton, Dodd and Richards, architects, have made the necessary alterations. The contract was awarded to the William Simpson Construction Company, at a cost of approximately $500,000, according to D. W. Foutt, executive vice-president of the corporation.

Speakers at the luncheon were George I. Cochran, vice-president and treasurer; John Steven McGroarty, W. J. Dodd, W. I. Hollingsworth, Harry Hammond, Norman Sprowl and Roger Marchetti.

The officers of the Mission Play Corporation are: W. I. Hollingsworth, president; George I. Cochran, vice-president and treasurer; D. W. Foutt, executive vice-president; A. Pardon, secretary. Other directors are Samuel K. Rindge, Joseph Scott and Benjamin F. Redcoe. The directorate is composed of H. O. Davis, Henry M. Robinson, John W. Kemp, Milton
Kaufman, Harold Janes, John G.
Dodd, Frank A. Miller, L. E. Behrmer,

SUIT SEEKS TO RESTRAIN DRAIN PLAN

Property Owners Assert
Ordinance for Sacatele
System Irregular

Suit to enjoin the city from proceeding with the Sacatele Storm Drain System No. 3 was instituted yesterday in Superior Court by Phillip L. Johnson, Goddard and Gaylord Apartments, Inc., acting as property owners in the proposed assessment district.

According to the complaint, the ordinance calling for the work was irregular and not according to law and it also was asserted the work as now planned would not be done in accordance with the terms of the ordinance. The petitioners further charged that the cost of the project would constitute an unreasonable burden upon the property owners in the assessment district.

The petition asked that the city be enjoined from proceeding with any work on the storm drain and also that the city be restrained from carrying out the terms of the contract.

Both Deny Divorce Plan by Pros

Jack Pickford and Marilyn Miller

PICKFORD SPLIT-UP HINTED

But Both Marilyn and Jack Deny Vicariously That She's in Chicago to Get Divorce

Rumors contained in eastern dispatches yesterday that Marilyn Miller, musical comedy actress, had established a legal residence in Chicago for the purpose of divorcing Jack Pickford, actor and brother of Mary Pickford, were denied here last night—but not by Jack Pickford himself. The same rumors also were denied in New York—but not by Marilyn Miller.

The eastern dispatches declared that it has been learned the couple actually have been separated for more than a year, and that the divorce proceedings have been a mere matter of finding the time.

However, when the news reached
Los Angeles it officially was denied by Miss Grace Moore, who described herself as Pickford's accredited representative.

"There is no truth in such reports," stated Miss Moore. "Why, Miss Miller has had no time to establish a residence in Chicago. Moreover, as the star in 'Sonny,' she is scheduled to play the next three weeks in Philadelphia and then start an eighteen-week engagement in Boston."
Miss Moore was sorry, but Pickford himself couldn't be reached. It seems that he left Los Angeles for a sort of indefinite trip in the general direction of Del Monte and way points.
Just where he finally might be reached his representative was uncertain.

According to dispatches from New York, Miss Miller also was "out" to newspaper men, but another "official" denial was forthcoming from the actress's secretary, Miss Belle Harris, who stated she had been authorized by the actress to say that there was no truth in the reports.

The Pickfords were married on July 30, 1922, after Flo Ziegfeld, Marilyn's former employer, exerted considerable effort to prevent the match. From time to time rumors that they had reached a parting of the ways have reached circulation. Pickford was said to have left the theater in a huff on the night Miss Miller opened in "Sonny."

UNAUTHORIZED SALES REPORTED TO LEGION

Reports of unauthorized sales of calendars and cards have been received by the American Legion from Los Angeles citizens who have been approached by asserted veterans of the World War, it was learned yesterday when Archie M. Vernon, commander of the Los Angeles post of the American Legion.

Declaring that they are now over-

for sixty days.

PRISONER FILES DIVORCE SUIT

Suspect Awaiting Trial in Slaying Accused Wife of Unkind Remarks

From his cell in the County Jail, where he is awaiting trial
on a murder charge, Ramon Flores yesterday filed suit for divorce against his wife, Conception Flores. She, he charges, has been making unkind remarks about him.

The complaint states that they were married in 1920, and separated in 1922. Last June Flores approached his estranged wife with proffers of peace.
Then along came Fortunato
Rodriguez and urged her not to return.

The result, the complaint continues, was that the "said" Fortunato Rodriguez was killed and plaintiff is at this time confined in the County Jail of Los Angeles county, awaiting trial for the murder.

The complaint was prepared by Attorney Joseph B. Marquette, Jr.

BLACK STOCKINGS OUT OF DATE

Sheer Hose of Light Color
Coming to Kne This Year as Gifts

CHICAGO, Dec. 21. (P)— Black silk stockings, formerly the sign of elegance, seem to have disappeared forever, said the head of a large stocking factory today in a survey of Christmas business.

Present emphasis on stockings as a leading detail of the costume, is so great, he said, that women will have nothing but the sheerest and most subtly colored hose, with the demand for light colors.

Sale of silk hose for Christmas gifts is breaking all previous records, the survey indicated, with Chicago's bill for gift stockings probably $2,000,- 000, and that for the nation
$50,000,000.

JAIL MATRON FINDS DRUGS ON PRISONER

In Addition to Vagrancy Sentence Woman Faces
Prosecution for Felony

When Marjorie Peppas made her plans for spending 70 days in the County Jail, which were imposed upon her when she pleaded guilty to a vagrancy charge before Municipal Judge Bullock, she failed to
C. Sullivan, jail matron.

As a result, Mrs. Peppas was taken from her jail quarters yesterday to be arraigned before Municipal Judge Bullock on a charge of possessing narcotics, a felony.

According to Patrolman Martens of the narcotic squad, Mrs. Sullivan discovered six finger-stalls filled with morphine and veronal when Mrs. Peppas was searched before being sent to jail to start her sentence on the 17th inst.

The woman, whose husband is said to be serving a long term in San Quentin for narcotic selling, must appear for preliminary hearing next Monday. Bail was fixed at $1000.

We greet you as one of the most potent influences upon civilization; as a mighty factor in shaping the nation's destiny; as builders of character and moulders of public opinion in the decades to come.

We commend your patience, your tolerance, your official spirit and unwavering devotion in training the minds of our boys and girls who will be the statesmen, the educators, the professional and business men and women of tomorrow.

We hail you as benefactors of community and commonwealth, whose deeds go unheralded and unsung and whose reward, it seems, must come more from the joy of a work well done than from monetary consideration.

We trust your visit to Los Angeles will be pleasant and profitable.

GADD PUBLICITY UNDER SCRUTINY

Public Works Hearing Delves Into Propaganda

Articles Urged Contractor be Paid for "Extras"

Committee Votes to Call Bond Man as Witness

The source of propaganda sent to community newspapers and civic and business associations last summer from a "Civic Credit Committee," urging that Peter H. Gadd, contractor for the West Adams storm drain, be given his $250,000 "extras" on the West Adams storm drain, interested the Public Works Committee at its hearing yesterday afternoon. The committee is investigating charges of four engineers that Public Works Commissioner Dunn, Contractor Gadd and President A. W. Alley of the Municipal Engineers' Association have conspired to have City Engineer Shaw remove the first step in the cutting being the placing of Alley in charge of the West Jefferson street storm drain.

Testimony was given at yesterday's committee hearing by President Joseph H. Shaw of the Associated Improvement Associations that he received some of the pro-Gadd propaganda, but he testified that his association took no action in the matter.

VOYE TO CALL VANDEVEER
The committee, on motion of Chairman Randall, voted to ask the Council to subpoena Harry D. Vandever, local manager of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland, which was Gadd's survey bonding company on the West Jefferson-street job. Frank E. Clove, one of the engineers who made the charges now under investigation by the committee, told the committee that Vandever had said that he would not appear "before the kangaroo court," referring to the Council's Public Works Committee, and the present investigation.

Councilman Sparks asked a number of witnesses if in their opinion the Council's West Adams storm drain investigation had injured the city's credit or caused contractors to refuse to bid on Los Angeles public improvements and the answer was all "no."

The principal witness at yesterday's hearing by the committee was Storm Drain Design Engineer L. W. Armstrong, who was asked concerning the now-famous resolution of the Municipal Engineers' Association of August 22, last, presented to the Board of Public Works and recommending that President Alley be placed in charge of the West Jefferson-street storm drain.

TILLS OF IMPRESSIONS
He said that when he heard of the resolution it gave him the impression that it was inspired by the West Adams contractor (Gadd) and Public Works Commissioner Dunn and that he (Armstrong) had told of such impression. The resolution had made, Engineer Armstrong testified that President Alley made no denial to him (Armstrong) of Armstrong's belief that the resolution emanated from Gadd and Dunn. Armstrong also testified that he had told President Alley that the resolution

SHE'S GOING TO AID SANTA CLAUS

tion gave him (Armstrong) the impression that it was a step in Commissioner Dunn's getting rid of Mr. Shaw as City Engineer. Alley made no denial of this. Armstrong testified that the four engineers who made the affidavit on which the present investigation is based are George A. Neap, Frank E. Clove, Allen S. Baker and C. F. Francisco. They told the committee that by the testimony so far introduced and to be introduced at the hearing when resumed on the 30th inst., they will attempt to show that by propaganda sent to community newspapers and associations and by efforts through employees of the engineering department, a plot was hatched to discredit the City Engineer. West Adams storm-drain investigation, to give Contractor Gadd his West Adams "extras" and to have City Engineer Shaw removed as a result of Mr. Shaw's testimony that $250,000 of the West Adams storm-drain extras were unnecessary and of the City Engineer's refusal to approve of $80,000 "extras" installed by Contractor Gadd in the West Jefferson-street storm drain.

In the case of the West Jefferson-street storm drain, extra, the Board of Public Works sustained the City Engineer, and Gadd was not paid for the $80,000 extras he installed without the approval of the City Engineer and which the City Engineer declared were unnecessary.

HEART BALM ACTION WON BY CORNERO

Federal Dry Agents Hear Woman State She Helped Him in Bootlegging

In a courtroom lavishly decorated with income-tax officials and Federal secret-service men, Anthony J. Cornero, frequently styled the bootleg baron of Los Angeles, gained another victory with the law yesterday by successfully refuting the claims of Winona Flora Houston for $250,000 worth of heart balm. His attorneys, J. J. Thompson, deserve credit, however, as the elusive Cornero was conspicuous by his absence "somewhere between Alaska and Cuba," the said attorneys gravely informed Judge Long of the Long Beach Municipal Court, who sat on the case in the capacity of a Superior Court jurist. Miss Houston declared that Cornero promised to marry her in September, 1923, and, relying on that promise, she added that she went to live with him and thereafter, she said, she assisted him to considerable extent in bootlegging activities. There was earnest craning of necks on the part of the minions of the law in the court's background as this admission was made, the fact that Mr. Cor actually had trafficked in liquor apparently charging the courtroom air with surprise. Miss Houston was forced to admit on cross-examination, however, that she had been previously married to one Theodore J. Wilson, had divorced him and that in September, 1923, she had not received her final decree. She also said that she introduced Mr. Cornero frequently to her husband, but that he was "very evasive" whenever she tried to rush him into the presence of a clergyman.

FUNERAL RITES TODAY FOR MRS. T. E. PURDY

Funeral services for Mrs. Anise Edith Purdy, 50 years of age, wife of Thomas E. Purdy, agent for the Santa Fe Railroad at Gallup, N. M., both former residents of Los Angeles, will be conducted this morning at 11 o'clock from the undertaking establishment of Pierce Brothers, 720 West Washington street. Mrs. Purdy, who died in Gallup last Sunday, will be laid to rest in the family plot at Forest Lawn Cemetery. She leaves, besides her husband, two daughters, Edith Mary and Grace Ellen Purdy, of Gallup, and a son, Joseph A. Purdy, of San Francisco.

RETURNS FOR CHRISTMAS
Mr. and Mrs. F. S. McGinnis and children will arrive in Los Angeles Thursday morning from San Francisco to spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. McGinnis's father, Carl Leonard. Mr. McGinnis is passenger traffic manager of Southern Pacific and the family home was maintained here for years.

The Pacific Era is here with tremendous possibilities. Read about it in The Midwinter Number of The Times, out December 28.

FUTURE ROSY TO SANTA FE CHIEF

Vice-President Here on Tour Optimistic Over 1927

Increase Sighted for Tourist Travel to California

Interest in Coast Declared Stimulated in East

Optimism prevails in railroad circles over the business outlook for 1927, declared Edward Chambers, vice-president in charge of traffic of the Santa Fe Railroad, upon his arrival at the Biltmore yesterday. Mr. Chambers is here on a tour of inspection of the Santa Fe properties throughout the West and to confer with the company's representatives at different centers. "So far as the information of our office goes there is every indication that the business of our company will be fully equal to that of 1926, and that's saying a whole lot, for this year has been exceptionally good," said Mr. Chambers. "I base my predictions on the exhaustive data on every factor bearing on the question which have been accumulated by representatives of the Santa Fe."

The railroad executive suggested that so far as tourist travel to California is concerned next year, he believes it will exceed that of 1926. "Interest in California has been stimulated all over the country during the past year and while I would not go so far as to say that the coming year's tourist travel will be the biggest in railroad history, it will come very near it," he said.

Referring to the general railway situation, Mr. Chambers stated that during 1926 the western railways reached the peak of efficiency in their handling of perishable freight.

HOSPITAL PATIENT SEEKING RELATIVES

The Los Angeles Chapter of the American Red Cross has asked The Times to assist in locating relatives of John Cleveland Lord, a patient in the United States Naval Hospital at San Diego. Lord is seeking his father, Mr. George Lord; his grandmother, Mrs. Nettie E. Lord, and his uncle, Howard Lord, all of whom are said to live here. Lord is being treated at the hospital for injuries suffered recently when he reached three persons from a San Diego home filled with monoxide gas.

Before the TURN of the YEAR

WHEN A MAN DIES INTENTATE, and his heirs are confronted with unexpected and difficult problems of administration without a WILL, it usually appears that NEGLECT or POSTPONEMENT was all that prevented the making of a Will.

This year is old, almost gone. But there is still time to have your WILL drawn by an attorney to express your wishes and do justice to your heirs, naming Security Bank as your Executor, and if necessary as Trustee to carry out benefactions.

TODAY, arrange for a conference with a Trust Officer of Security so the New Year will find this important DUTY properly performed.
